Baswant Honeybee Park and Training Centre, Mukhed Road, Pimpalgaon Baswant

Baswant Honeybee Park & Training Center is an innovative concept for promotion of importance of honeybee is established at Baswant Pimpalgaon, Nashik (Maharashtra) in 2019. This garden is unique and first of its kind in India. All the class of the society like school & college students, youths, farmers, women, rural-urban population as well as senior citizens were considered while developing innovative concept of Baswant Garden.

The bee garden has Honeybee keeping equipment and also provides detailed information about it. There are colonies of honey bees like Sateri, Italian and Trigona, from which information is given through demonstrations. Detailed information about bees can also be found by walking around easily through the selfie point and overall structure in the bee garden. It can be said that, this is the first time in Maharashtra that a bee garden has been set up in this way.

Tourists visiting Baswant Honeybee Park should get education, awareness, and knowledge and skill development of various technologies as well as should also get enjoyment and entertainments is the prime motto behind development of this project. This centre was set up to conduct demonstration-based training programs to promote Beekeeping among farmers, youths and overall community.
