Subject: Report on ‘Feedback on Curriculum’ for the academic year 2023-24

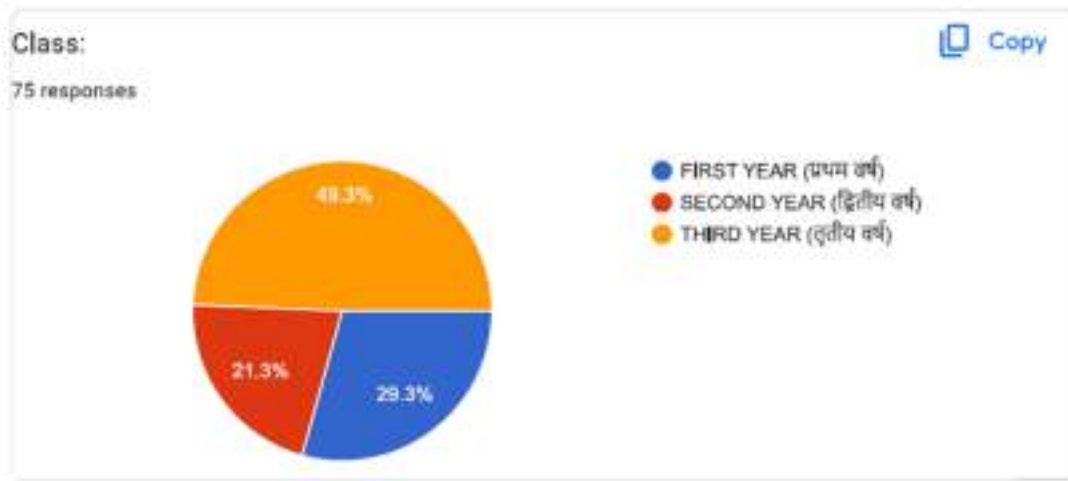

The feedback by students on Curriculum had been taken through online mode in the academic year 2023-24. The Google Form had been used to take students’ feedback. There were 12 questions related with the curriculum taught in our college. The multiple choice questions were asked to receive the feedback. The last question was for the students’ suggestion.

Total 75 students from all the faculties and from all the levels had recorded their feedback. The following diagram shows the percentage of students’ feedback from all the faculties and the all the levels.

The feedback given by majority students is from Commerce faculty. Total 56% feedback is from Commerce faculty. Following to Commerce faculty, the Arts and Science faculty students has given their feedback and it is recorded as 20% respectively.

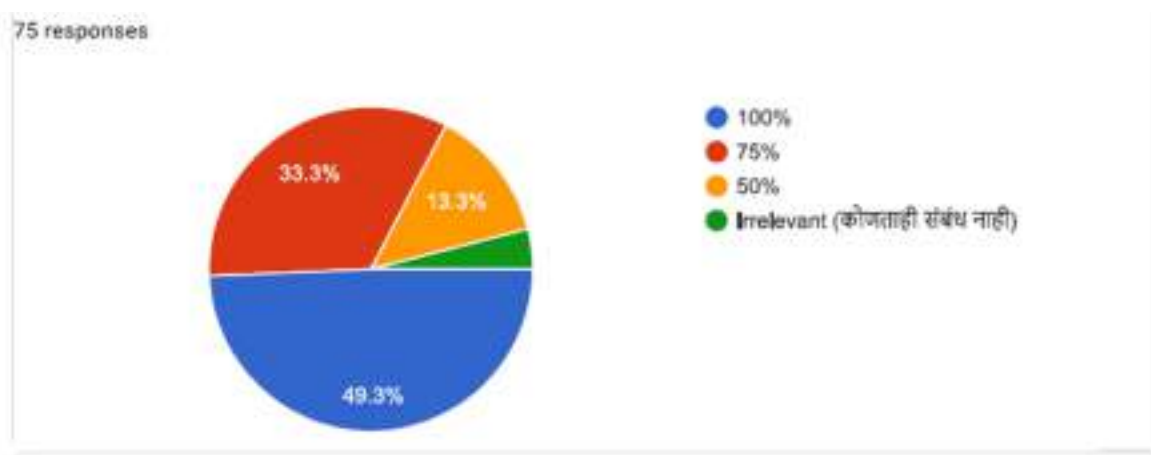

While studying the feedback as per the class, it is found that 49.3% students' feedback is from the third year students. The second year students' feedback is 21.3% while the first year students' feedback 29.3%.

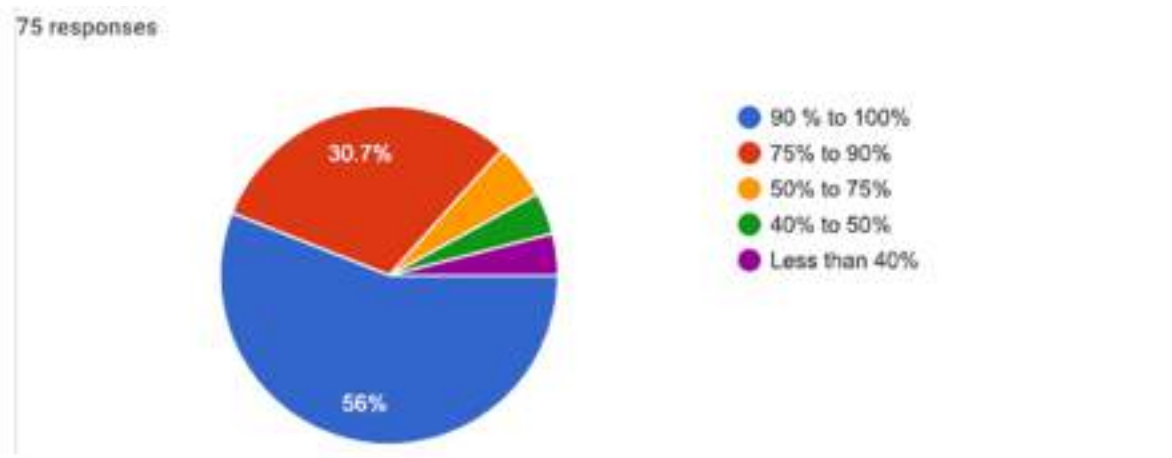

Question1: The first question was about the interdisciplinary relevance of the syllabi they study. It is understood that 49.3% students said that the syllabi they study has 100% interdisciplinary relevance. 33.3% students recorded that 75% syllabus has interdisciplinary relevance. 13.3% students said that their 50% syllabi have interdisciplinary relevance. Very few students disagreed with the question about interdisciplinary relevance. The following diagram shows it:

Question 2: The second question was intended to know about how much syllabus is taught in the classroom. 56% students recorded their feedback that more than 90% syllabus is taught in the classroom. 30.7% students said that more than 75% syllabus is taught in the classroom. Very few percent 13% students said that less than 50% percent syllabus is taught in the classroom.

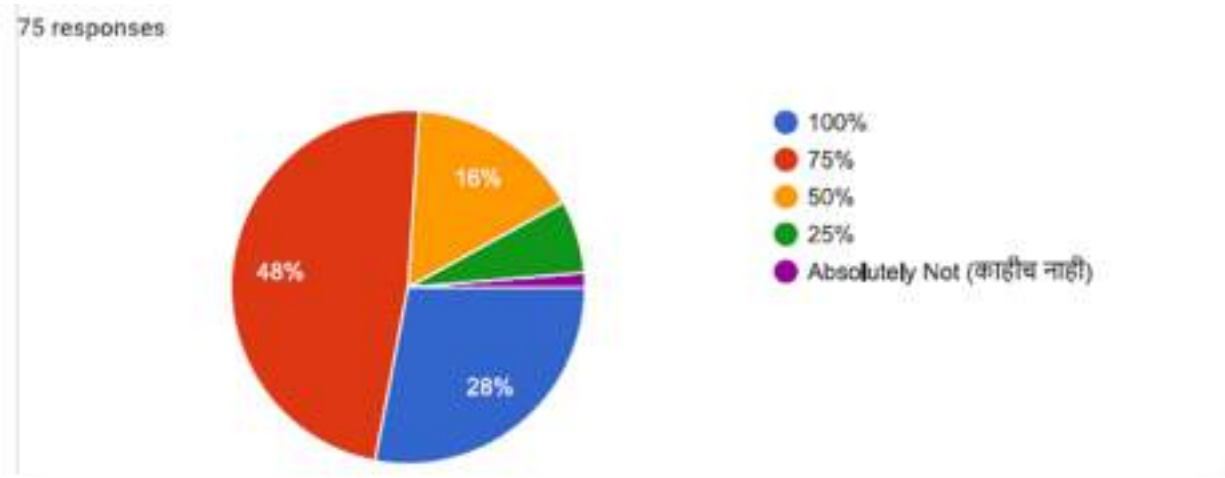

Question 3: The third question was about the weightage of syllabi in the internal assessment. The question was intended to know about what the students think about the internal assessment carried out in the college. The 29% students are of the view that the internal assessment must be on 100% syllabus. Only 15% students said that the internal assessment must be based on the 50% syllabus. Very few 11% students believe that the internal assessment must be based on 25% syllabus of the semester.

Question 5: The fifth question dealt with the percentage of value education in their syllabi. The question aimed at to know what students think and learn about the human values. 28% students believed that the content of human values in their syllabi is near about 100%. They learn human values by studying their syllabi. Their syllabi are full of human values. 48% students believed that near about 75% syllabi is concerned about human values. 16% students are opinioned that the content of human values is less than 50% in their syllabi. Overall, majority of students believed that they learn human values from their graduation.

Question 6: The sixth question was about the understanding and analysis of the syllabi provided by the university. Do they have any difficulty in understanding the syllabi and at what level? 76% students recorded their feedback that their syllabi are adequate to understand and to analyze it. 12% students have difficulty in understanding and analyzing their syllabi. Very few students felt that their syllabi are dull, irrelevant and inadequate. The following figure shows it:

Question 7: The seventh question was about the enhancement of knowledge and improvement of life skills through the syllabi they study. 69.3% students believed that their syllabi are adequate to enhance their knowledge and to improve their life skills necessary for living the life. 17% students felt that their syllabi do not help them to improve their knowledge and life skills. Less than 14% students said that their syllabi are inadequate and dull. The following figure indicates it:
